

Boyes Turner is ranked in Chambers UK 2006 as follows:

CLINICAL NEGLIGENCE

THAMES VALLEY

Clinical Negligence: Mainly Claimant Thames Valley Leading firms
1 BOYES TURNER Reading
Leading Individuals
1 DESMOND Adrian Boyes Turner
2 BROWN Susan Boyes Turner
Up-and-coming individuals MONEY-KYRLE Richard Boyes Turner

Band 1

Boyes Turner

The Firm: “Technically competent and well-known,” the firm’s clinical negligence practice remains the dominant practice in the region. This large Reading-based team has a distinguished history in complex cases and takes referrals from clients both at home and abroad. Recent examples of successful work include recovering claims of £6 million and £2.5 million for two girls born with cerebral palsy. The Lawyers: Competitors recommended team head Adrian Desmond for his “acute judgment and businesslike approach to cases.” Susan Brown wins praise for being “efficient and sympathetic,” while Richard Money-Kyrle has impressed sources as “a sensible lawyer,” able to handle complex matters.

MAINLY CLAIMANT

PERSONAL INJURY

THAMES VALLEY

Personal Injury: Mainly Claimant Thames Valley Leading firms
1 BOYES TURNER Reading
Leading Individuals
1 DESMOND Adrian Boyes Turner

Band 1

Boyes Turner

The Firm: This impressive boutique maintains a leading position in the market, dealing with complex PI and clinical negligence cases. It continues to focus on catastrophic injury and motorcycle accident claims, for which it has a separate unit. The firm is also notable for an outreach programme created to support brain-injured clients. Lawyers recently handled a motorcycle claim on behalf of an editor at The Sun newspaper. The Lawyers: Heading up the team, Adrian Desmond excels at negotiating the intricacies of complex personal injury matters. Interviewees single him out for a “constructive approach” that extends to clinical negligence cases.

MAINLY CLAIMANT